MAY HELP PAY VISITING NURSE

City Council Considers Proposition to Appropriate $500 on Her Annual Salary.

SOME QUESTION OF LEGALITY

Member of City Health Board Offers to Resign if She is Appointed in His Place.

A proposition was submitted to the city council last night asking for aid in maintaining the visiting nurse. The council was asked to appropriate $500 towards the salary of the visiting nurse. Nothing definite resulted as the city attorney desired to investigate.

For some time there has been a growing demand for the city to help pay the expenses of the visiting nurse. Heretofore the nurse has been maintained by private funds and subscriptions. It was pointed out that since the visiting nurse is for the entire city, the council should help pay for this service out of the public funds. There is a question of whether the council has a right to appropriate money for this purpose.

One member of the city board of health offered to resign and then have the council appoint the visiting nurse as the third member of the board. In this way her salary could be fixed at $500 and paid by the city. Again the question of law arose as there was some doubt as to whether the city had a right to appoint a woman to a public office. The salary of the visiting nurse for next year will be $1,000 and it is believed that if the council will make arrangements to pay one-half of this amount the balance can be raised by subscription. The council is favorable to the visiting nurse idea and if possible some arrangements will likely be made.

The "clean-up, paint-up" idea hit the council last night and it was voted to put a new floor in the council chamber, paper and paint the room. The suggestion was made by Councilman Wagoner. He stated that the present condition of the room was a disgrace. He pointed out that the floor had been patched and that it was almost beyond repair. The council voted favorably on the suggestions and instructed Mayor Bebout to award the contracts. Mayor Bebout balked on selecting the wall paper and stated that when he got ready to buy he would call the council in and let the members help select the paper.

The city clerk was again instructed.

LAST DAY TO SAVE PENALTY

Scemewhat of Rush to Pay Street
Oiling Assessments.

Today was the final day for paying the oiling assessment without the added penalty of ten per cent. As a result there was somewhat of a rush towards the city treasurer's office. The oiling assessment this year was about one-half what it was last year owing to the fact that only one coat of oil was placed on the streets. An agreement was reached with the contractor for the one application. In case the assessments were not paid today they will be certified over to the county auditor and placed on the tax duplicate for collection next spring.

J. E. SPRADLING'S MOTHER SUCCUMBS

Mrs. H. J. Spradling, Age 75 Years,
Formerly of This County, Dies
at Kokomo Today

SHE LEFT HERE 25 YEARS AGO

Mrs. H. J. Spradling, age seventy-five years, mother of J. E. Spradling of this city and former resident of this county, died at her home in Kokomo this morning at four o'clock, according to a message received today by Mr. Spradling. Mrs. Spradling has been in failing health for some time and last week she was once reported to be dying. Mr. Spradling went to her bedside then but she improved. Her death was due to heart trouble.

Mrs. Spradling was the daughter of William and Rachel Davis and was born and reared in Franklin county. Her maiden name was Frances Davis. Mr. and Mrs. Spradling have lived in Kokomo 25 or 26 years. They moved there from Milroy, where Mr. Spradling was engaged in farming. He first went into the hotel business and later opened a meat market. Mrs. Spradling was a member of the M. E. church from girlhood. The funeral will be held Friday at Kokomo.

The teachers and officers of the Methodist Sunday school will meet tonight at seven-thirty o'clock at the home of Miss Belle Gregg in North Jackson street. A full attendance is desired as important business is to be considered.

Mrs. Maude Conwan who was operated on at the Sexton sanitorium two weeks ago, was removed yesterday to the home of Mrs. Sarah Conwan where she is recovering nicely.

OPPOSITION TO GRAY REVEALED

Political Gossip is That John M.
Lontz of Richmond is Being Groomed to Seek Nomination.

FOR SIXTH DISTRICT SEAT

Sort of Understand Last Campaign That Present Congressman Would be Given One More Chance.

There is a growing belief in political circles, especially in Rush county, that Finly Gray will find the sailing rather hard in the next campaign, and that he may even be side-tracked at the primary is not at all improbable.

In some quarters it is believed that Finly Gray has outlived his usefulness as a congressman and that the rank and file of the Democratic party in this district may unite in voting against him in the primary to be held in March. Congressman Gray has had the district practically in his power when it came to securing the nomination through the old convention route, but with a primary the race promises to become a free-for-all.

While there has been talk of opposition to Gray no one has had the nerve to oppose him in the Democratic convention, the last two times he was nominated. All of this is subject to change with the primary. One well known Democrat stated today that it would not surprise him if Gray had one or possibly two opponents for the nomination.

The man mentioned here as being the most likely candidate to oppose Congressman Gray is John M. Lontz of Richmond. Mr. Lontz has made no formal declaration of his intentions, but is known to be considering the matter and is even being urged by his friends to enter the race. It is also known that some of Lontz's friends have been touring the district getting a line on the sentiment and the reports these friends receive are said to be highly favorable to Lontz and decidedly unfavorable to Finly Gray.

Mr. Lontz is a successful manufacturer of Richmond, having been engaged in the manufacture of lawn mowers for several years. He is known to many Democrats here. One local Democrat described Lontz as being of the Adair type.

Gray has not made an announcement that he either would or would not be a candidate, but it has been taken for granted that he would again seek the nomination. With opposition staring him in the face it is not known what he will do. It was the general opinion that the last time Gray was nominated that he would be given one more chance and as this chance has been given many believed Gray should step down and out.

But this quitting idea is not characteristic of the Gray family—Finly and George. It took a severe drubbing in the last election to convince George Gray that he was not wanted on the bench in the Fayette-Union and Franklin circuit and the same may hold true with his brother Finly.

If Gray continues in the fight and Lontz comes out against him one of the hardest fights witnessed in this district will no doubt result. If the feeling over the district is the same as it is in Rush county then a large majority of the Democrats are "soured" on Gray and Lontz should have easy sailing in the primary.

Class No. 4 of the New Salem M. E. church will hold a chicken and cake exchange next Saturday morning beginning at nine o'clock, at the Plough Hat shop.

RETURNS TWO INDICTMENTS

Grand Jury Adjourns For Last Time
And Makes Report on Its Various Investigations

CONDEMNNS COUNTY FARM

Recommended Old Buildings be Razed And New And Modern
Ones be Constructed

The grand jury made its final report to Judge Sparks late yesterday afternoon and was finally discharged. The grand jury reported two additional indictments. The bench warrants were issued but no arrests were to be made today because Judge Sparks was in Greenfield and the parties could not be brought before him if arrested.

Judge Sparks thanked the grand jury for their services. The grand jury in its report to the court took occasion to condemn the buildings at the county farm, as has been the custom of grand juries in the past. This grand jury made it plain that the old building should be razed and a new one constructed. The report was ordered certified to the county commissioners by the court. The report in full is as follows:

"We, the undersigned members of the grand jury of the November term, 1915 of the Rush Circuit court, do respectfully report:

"We have made a thorough examination of the court house and found it to be in good condition in reference to cleanliness, and we wish to express our thanks to Custodian Joseph Diekmann, for the manner in which he has discharged his duties as janitor.

"We found the jail, upon examination to be clean and sanitary throughout and well kept by the present sheriff.

"We made a trip to the poor farm and found the buildings old and out of date. These buildings are, in our opinion, a disgrace to the county of Rush as a home for helpless, aged blind, paralytic, indigent inhabitants thereof. In our opinion, it would be useless and a waste of money to expend any fund in repairing the present buildings, and we believe it would be economy in the end to build new modern buildings for the care of the unfortunates of Rush county.

"The buildings are kept clean and in as good condition as possible, considering what the superintendent has to deal with, but the present condition thereof, and especially that in reference to the women's department, is far from sanitary. This condition is caused by the poor construction of the said building and from the lack of the use of sanitary toilets within said building.

"We recommend that the board of commissioners raze the said buildings to the ground and construct a new and modern building to be used in housing the Rush county poor.

"We have carefully examined into all matters brought before us and have given them our most careful consideration and, at this time, we know of nothing further to report.

"Respectfully submitted, Owen Henley, Joel G. Carson, George Spillman, William Chance, J. A. Mull and George B. Moore.

(By United Press.)
Shelbyville, Ind., Dec. 8.—Friends of Peter Lux today received word that Lux had been crowned corn grower de lux at Columbus, Mo. Lux received $500 in gold as the prize for growing the best ten ears of white corn shown at the national show. It was the grand champion prize of the world. John Vogle of Bartholomew county drew $100 for the best 100 ears of corn, and John A. Stainbrook of Johnson county won the same amount for the best single ear.

ALL NOT PEACEFUL ON PEACE SHIP

On Board Peace Ship Oscar The Second, Via Wireless to Cape Race, Dec. 8.—All is not peaceful aboard Henry Ford's ship of peace today.

The Rev. Charles Aked of San Francisco and several others who entertained some doubts as to the success of the peace plan have asked to be "shown." They insist on being allowed to examine the document Madam Rosika Schwimmer asserted she had in her possession, proving that certain belligerents on both sides are not opposed to peace negotiations and that all neutrals favor the peace conference. They also insist that she offer proof of her statement that unofficial representatives of the belligerents will attend the Ford peace conference. Madam Schwimmer has thus far refused to produce the documents on the ground they are confidential.

HENRY FORD FIRES PEACE SHOT TODAY

Sends 800-Word Message by Wireless Telling of Meeting on Oscar
The Second Last Night.

"GOING TO STOP WAR"—JONES

(By United Press.)

New York, Dec. 8.—Henry Ford fired another "peace shot" from the wireless batteries of the peace ship Oscar The Second today. He sent to the United Press and other news associations an 800 word article describing the meeting aboard the ship last night in which Ellis Jones attacked President Wilson's preparedness program.

"This is a reactionary message," said Jones. "It comes to us when we must speak out. We are going now to stop a terrible war among nations, everyone of which was prepared in a military way for war. This is no time to disturb American traditions and prepare the United States for war."

The official board of St. Paul's M. E. church will give a social to the members and friends of the congregation on next Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. A short program will be given after which the membership will enjoy a general social time.

SUIT OVER ROAD IS COMPROMISED

Henry S. Conaway Given Practically
All That he Demanded in Agreement Between Parties.

WILK I COMPANY DEFENDANTS

Plaintiff Objected to Carrying Out of Terms Regarding Forbes Road
in Ripley.

The injunction suit of Henry S. Conaway against Wilk and Company, which started this morning before Judge Raymond Springer in circuit court was compromised this afternoon and the action dismissed by the plaintiff.

The case was the outgrowth of the building of the James Forbes road in Ripley township, over which there has been much litigation.

Under the terms of the compromise the road will be completed without any change whatever affecting the Conoway land. Under the terms of the agreement it was considered a victory for Conaway. The costs in the action were divided between the parties.

The injunction was sought against Wilk and Company to prevent this company from finishing the road as per an agreement reached in a previous law suit. When the road was finished Forbes filed suit against accepting it, claiming that the road was not built according to the plans and specifications. Chauncey Duncan represented the plaintiff and Kiplinger and Smith and A. L. Gary the defendants.

This suit was compromised in the Shelby circuit court where it was sent on a change of venue. Under the terms of the compromise Wilk & Company were to make certain alterations. In making these changes Conaway claimed that his property would be damaged as he has already raised his barn and leveled his yard to conform with the grade of the road. He asked that Wilks and Company be enjoined from carrying out the compromise agreement. The plaintiff alleged that an agreement of this kind was illegal. Most of the morning session was taken up with the introduction of records from the commissioners' court dealing with the Forbes road.

Judge Sparks has appointed Cary F. Jackson and Joseph L. Cowing jury commissioners for the ensuing year. Mr. Jackson was reappointed and Mr. Cowing succeeds Ralph Payne. The two new commissioners were at work today refilling the jury box. The names of property owners were secured from the tax duplicates.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to Thomas E. Logan and Clara B. Kirkpatrick.

The Purchasing Agent

Mothers may be the purchasing agent of the home—but mother's purchases frequently follow the suggestions made by father or son or daughter.

The children especially have definite ideas of what they would like to have particularly what they like to wear.

The force of newspaper advertising lies in its appeal to the entire family.

Everyone reads a newspaper like The Daily Republican.

It goes into the homes. It gives ideas, settles the question of what to get and where to get it.

LISTEN FOR A MOMENT TO THE STORIES OF LITTLE FOLKS WITHOUT ANY HOPE

Scores of Them Are Expecting Good Fellows to Steer Santa Claus to Their Chimney

PLAINTIFF TALES RECITED

If all the Good Fellows in Rushville could have a brief view of conditions investigators for the Goodfellows League have found, they would tumble over one another to get into charter membership of the League.

Many stories of want and privation, stories of homes with no prospect but that of a barren Christmas, stories of innocent little children who are depending upon the Good Fellows in Rushville to give Santa Claus a friendly tip about their age and address.

One charitable woman went into the home of a widow with a large family to get facts for the Goodfellows League. She found squalor and want. She saw a half grown girl and inquired her name and age.

"She's just fourteen," said the tired mother, "but she's married and we couldn't hardly expect the people to help her."

The visitor in the home was so astonished that she forgot to ask the names of the other children.

If any of you folks believe the Good Fellows haven't laudable work before them, just listen, for a mo-

COMMUNIPAW IS REPORTED SUNK

Dispatches Reaching London Say
Standard Oil Vessel Was Tor-
pedoed by Submarine.

(By United Press.)
London, Dec. 8.—Sharp contradiction in reports concerning the fate of the American vessel Communipaw made it uncertain this afternoon whether the oil tanker was actually attacked by a submarine.

Though admittedly possible, it was not considered probable here that the Communipaw has departed from Alexandria almost immediately and then to have been attacked. It was held to be most probable that she was chased by a submarine while enroute or else another vessel whose identity which has not been established was sunk.

That the American steamer
Communipaw was submarined
"with all hands" off Tabruk was earlier news received here. This message was interpreted to mean that
the crew and the steamer were lost.

Dispatches from Genoa where the Communipaw set sail said that she had a crew of 39 men and five American officers. She was commanded by Captain Nordstrom and
was bound for Alexandria.

The nationality of the attacking
submarine is unknown.

Standard Oil Hears Communipaw
Reached Port But May Have

ARRIVED THERE ON SUNDAY

(By United Press.)
New York, Dec. 8.—The Standard
oil steamer Communipaw, reported
in Rome dispatches to have been sunk by a submarine, arrived at Alexandria on Sunday, according to a cablegram received at the Standard
Oil offices here.

The cable was signed by the Standard Oil agent at Alexandria. It stated merely that the steamer had arrived. Officials of the line admitted the vessel may have left port the
following day and may have been
attacked and sunk.

NOTIFIED OF SINKING.

(By United Press.)

department today received a cable-

Rome saying a vessel believed to be the Communipaw had been torpedoed
and sunk.

SOME SEASONABLE
DON'T FOR FOLKS

Before the real holiday rush begins
at the post office, special instructions
are being received daily from the department at Washington to make easier the task of the postal clerks
during the Christmas season.

The following list of "don'ts" has
been issued from the post-office:

- Don't wait until the day before
Christmas or Christmas day.
- Don't fail to wrap parcel securely.
- Don't use paper that tears easily.
- Don't use poor twine.
- Don't attempt to mail umbrellas,
canes, etc., unless a stick is tied
along the side to prevent breakage.
- Don't forget that hat boxes must
be crated.
- Don't write with pencil.
- Don't forget the return address.
- Don't write return address where
the address should be located.
- Don't use tags if it can be avoided.

Don't enclose any writing in parcel
except card with name or "Merry
Christmas."

Don't mix candy, cake, oranges and
apples in the same parcel.

Don't forget that parcels without the correct address are usually delayed.

Don't forget that china or glass
should be packed in excelsior and in
a wooden box.

Don't go away from home unless
you leave instructions to the carrier
regarding the delivery mail.

Don't mail tinselled post cards unless enclosed in an envelope with a
two-cent stamp on the outside.

Don't address parcels to children
unless the street number is given.

Don't expect post office clerks to wrap your parcels for you.

Don't present your parcels until
they are ready for mailing.

Don't forget to have your money
ready so that persons following you
may not be delayed.

Don't seal packages unless you
want to pay letter postage.

This masterpiece includes Cities Built and Burned; Battles on Land and Sea; Chariot Races; Greece in all its glory; Games of the Stadium; Ancient Classic Dances and Entrancing Love Scenes. This picture is remarkable as a spectacle but is even greater as a story of heart throbs and tender emotions—produced by a distinguished cast assisted by over 1,000 supernumeraries. Attend the Matinee and avoid the Night Rush.

Amusements

From all reports of the attendance from other cities, the six reel spectacle Damon and Pythias, which comes to the Princess Friday matinee and night, will draw record crowds for the local theatre. The management has suggested that as many as possible attend the matinee so that none will be disappointed at the night performance. This half million dollar photo-play of Friendship should be seen by everyone that believes in the uplift of mankind.

The Princess will show for tonight a big double program. Lillian Lorraine and William Courtleigh will be seen in "Neal of the Navy." In this episode Annette attends a dance aboard the U. S. S. Alabama where the disguised Hernandez again attempts to secure the Yellow Packet and Annette is thrown into the sea. Edith Storey and Hughie Mack are also featured in a great comedy, in two acts, "A Queen For An Hour." Tomorrow Edna Mayo and Bryant Washburn will be seen in "The House Divided." On Friday night the big stupendous spectacular production, "Damon and Pythias" will be shown.

The six-act photoplay version of Lottie Blair Parker's famous novel and drama, "Under Southern Skies," which comes to the Gem theater tomorrow with Mary Fuller, the Universal star, in the leading role, promises to enjoy as long a life as the original play and novel.

Many of the actors who have been connected with "Under Southern Skies" on the speaking stage have since become famous in the pictures, among them Henry Walthall, who plays the leading role in "The Birth of a Nation." Mr. Walthall played "Steve" for two years in the play on the speaking stage. This part is played by Paul Panzer in the Universal's version.

Ralph Stuart was the original "Burleigh" and is now a picture star. Mabel Trunnelle played "Lelia" with an Eastern "Under Southern Skies" company for two years and is now an Edison star. George Seigman, another star in "The Birth of a Nation," played "Colonel Daubeney" with an "Under Southern Skies" company for three years.

FEARS RAILROADS MAY BE SWAMPED

Secretary of Commerce Redfield Expresses Opinion at Opening of Waterways Convention.

DEVELOP THE WATERWAYS

(By United Press.)

Washington, Dec. 8.—Fear that American railroads may become swamped under the strain of commercial development was expressed today by Secretary of Commerce Redfield.

In opening the annual national rivers and harbors convention Redfield said waterways must be developed. He said the idea of "pork" grossly exaggerating and libeling the cause of waterways development must be disassociated from the movement.

"We in the United States are in danger of getting an unbalanced transportation plan," said Redfield. "Without both railways and waterways we should not be able to get along. Common sense requires that we make available our natural waterways and make artificial ones where commerce demands."

"The Fly-by-Nights"

"The Fly-by-nights" is the subject of a very interesting and inspiring editorial published by the Portland, Oregon, Journal, a prominent Democratic organ in the Pacific Northwest. This expression is used to describe a class of salesmen who appear at a local hotel and take orders for shoes or other commodities, and leave in a few days for other communities. The complaint of the Journal is that these salesmen pay

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Well-known local druggist says everybody is using old-time recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. Besides, it takes off dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

no taxes, buy no groceries, use no hardware, patronize no doctors or druggists and employ no labor. The Journal says: "The home dealer is a part of Portland. He helps maintain Portland; he helps provide jobs for Portland workers, he helps support Portland schools; he helps pay Portland firemen and Portland police; he spends his earnings in Portland and among Portlanders and by his helpfulness to the community he deserves the patronage of the people of the community."

The marvelous feature of this editorial by the Journal is its entire disregard of the application of its utterances to the problem of foreign importations. The "fly-by-night" at least pays a hotel bill, and advertises in the local papers. At the same time that the Journal is making a plea for the purchase of articles from Portland dealers, it is advocating a tariff policy which encourages American people to buy from European and Asiatic producers.

The European manufacturer pays very slight taxes under a Democratic policy, he does not help build up American enterprise, and all his interests are adverse rather than favorable to ours. Every dollar we pay him he uses to develop his industries so that he can take more dollars away from us.

In its local affairs the Journal recognizes the fact that the home dealer is "your neighbor, your townsman, your co-workers and he ought to have your patronage," but in national policies, the theory of the Journal and all other Democratic papers seems to be that the producer of Europe and Asia is "your neighbor, your co-worker who ought to have your patronage."

It is hoped that those readers of the Journal who accept its policy regarding the patronage of "fly-by-nights" in Portland will extend their patriotism and loyalty to home interests by advocating a national policy which encourages or compels the American people to patronize the producers of their own country.

Too Much Middle Men

The curse of the American farmer is the rapidly increasing, expanding and perpetuating middleman.

No matter what the farmers raises or produces, or what price the ultimate consumer pays, the middleman and his cohorts and satellites get the bulk of it.

When apples were rotting on the ground in many sections of the country last summer because the growers could not get a price sufficient to pay for marketing them the people of the cities were paying a nickel for three little runts. If fair sized they were two for a nickel, and in many cases five cents each.

Why can't the farmers of this county band together in some kind of an organization and do their own marketing without the assistance of these grasping and devouring middlemen? Surely some method could be devised whereby their crops could be marketed jointly and in bulk and thus save the tremendous shrinkage that now goes into the pockets of a horde of useless go-betweens.

Orange growers in Florida have such an organization and are getting better prices for their fruit and with less trouble.

In Chicago there are a number of men who have purchased fruit and truck land in Alabama. They have formed an organization for mutual advantage and protection and one man disposes of all of their products direct to the retailers, realizing good prices on every commodity.

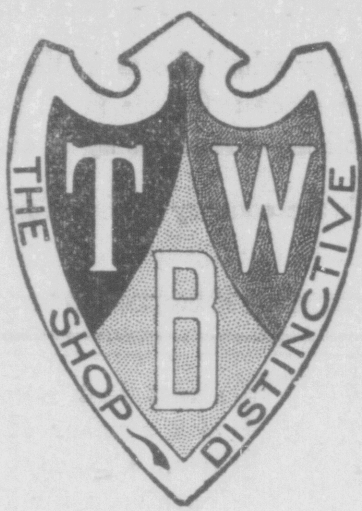

There are enough farmers in this county to form a large and powerful organization. Agents could be appointed in the large cities and shipments could be made direct. The services of numerous middlemen would be dispensed with and the increased profits would go into the pockets of the farmers.

The coming year promises to be one of great prosperity to the American people.

Representative N. E. Matthews, of Ohio, represents one of those numerous Congressional districts in which the sugar beet industry has made considerable progress. When the Democratic tariff law was passed, many of the farmers discontinued the raising of sugar beets and some of the factories closed down. The beginning of the European war revived the industry. As an indication of the importance of this industry to any community, Mr. Matthews gives figures showing that one small factory at Paulding, Ohio, paid out

Breathe Hyomei Four Times a Day
And Watch Results. Gives
Prompt Relief

The pleasantest, most convenient and most scientific method for the treatment of catarrh is Hyomei. Simply put a few drops of Hyomei in the inhaler that comes with every package and then breathe its air for a few minutes, four times a day.

It seems remarkable that so simple a way of treating catarrh will effect such quick relief, but the most important discoveries of science have always been the simplest. By breathing Hyomei in this way every particle of air that enters the air passages of the throat and head that goes into the lungs is charged with a healing balsam that kills the germs and bacilli of catarrh and soothes and allays irritation.

The first day's use of Hyomei will show an improvement and in a short time there should be no further trouble from catarrh. Its action is rapid and lasting.

You take no risk in buying Hyomei. A complete outfit is inexpensive but if after using you can say that it has not helped you Johnson's Drug Store will return your money. What other treatment for catarrh is sold under a guarantee like this? (Advertisement.)

COLUMBIA HAD GOOD SEASON

After Ten Year Lay off University

Found Football Much to Its

Liking

WON EVERY GAME PLAYED

Getting Ready to go After Bigger

Game Next Year—Three Men

Lost by Graduation

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

New York, Dec. 8.—After ten years, without football, without a single defeat, Columbia's Blue and White ploughed through the colleges it met upon the 1915 gridiron. An from the realm of footballers this long time, but my! my! what a comeback!

Columbia, fairly hopping around on her toes in glee over this year's doings, is expecting great things of the Blue and White eleven next year. The only thing that now appears which might militate against realization of that expectation is the fact that Columbia is doomed to lose three strong men from this year's lineup: Captain Francis M. Simonds, left half back; Ecky Calder and Herb Buermeyer, left and right end, respectively.

Columbia is getting ready to go after bigger game next year. Columbia wouldn't be at all averse to including Yale in her 1916 schedule. Columbia, in fact, is quite considerably chesty over this year's football and not, it might be added, altogether without justification.

The Blue and Whites led off wallowing St. Lawrence 57 to 0, slammed Stevens 15 to 6, sloughed the Connecticut Aggies 17 to 6 and lambasted N. Y. U. 19 to 16, to say nothing of topping off by showing Wesleyan off the field with a score of 18 to 0.

Maybe this ten year layoff business is great stuff, after all. Maybe the Miracle Man will try one of 'em. Maybe there's a tinge of this so-called psychological stuff in a ten year lay off at that. After Booth Tarkington wrote the Gentleman From Indiana, The Man From Home, The Two VenRevels and other books quite some ten years or so ago, he announced that he'd have to lie fallow for ten years before he could write again, because he was written out. Tarkington's 1914-1915 season has been a royal comeback too. May be something to it. Columbia ought to know—she has one of those psycho. departments; and maybe there was method in the professors' madness in banning football after all.

*****
* UNNECESSARY TO POINT
*****

Many complaints are often heard following any big undertaking by the city as a whole from business men who always bear the burden of the expense. Of course, only a small majority of them are complainers—but it is the rule that it is the complainers who are usually heard.

Following the last fall festival and horse show, members of a Rushville firm ridiculed the effort and declared that Rushville would never see another one. They declared that it was useless from a business standpoint and that the people didn't enjoy such things anyway. Besides, they pointed out, no horses were ever shown in front of their place and it did not do THEM any good.

It has since developed that this same firm sold a bill of goods amounting to $550.00 (think of it!—count them on your fingers—550 large simoleons) to a woman from a neighboring county seat city.

"Well how did it happen she spent that much money here?" a member of the firm was asked.

"The woman came here for the horse show and saw something she liked," he replied "and before she got through she spent $550."

But it was too good to call attention to the moral. Here was a complainer convinced by actual facts.

AMALGAMATION IS LIKELY TO RESULT

Independent Telephone Companies
Consider Uniting at Three
Day Conference

IS CONSIDERED FIRST STEP

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Dec. 8.—The first step towards amalgamation of two of the biggest independent telephone associations in this country was taken today when members of the Independent Telephone Association met in a joint three day convention here. William F. Fortune, president of the Indianapolis Telephone Co., is authority for the statement that the joint convention is the forerunner of the joining of the two associations.

It has been no secret that the independents have been planning joining forces. According to P. G. Holdegel, secretary and manager of the Central Mutual Telephone Company, Rockwell City, Iowa, a member of the National Telephone Company, the matter has been under discussion for some time.

The Janesville, Wis., situation was discussed today by W. S. Vivian, Chicago. At Janesville, Vivian asserted, subscribers of either the independent or the Bell company, may talk with subscribers of the other company, local or long distance. Neither company had lost a subscriber by the arrangement, he said.

Utility regulation was discussed by Judge Prouty of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

ment, to a few notes from the pages of names taken by one woman who volunteered to help the League in its work:

"Father hauls logs, earning just a bare living—mother washes."

"This woman is a widow and supports her seven children."

"The mother is a widow and washes to support her three children."

"This family has had scarlet fever since the first of September." There are six children in the family, ranging in age from two to fourteen years.

"Father has no steady work." Here is the tragedy, expressed in five words, of a family of four children with only the forlorn hope that the Good Fellows will steer Santa Claus to their chimney.

"This father works every day at the —making $14.00 per week. His wife is blind; one child has throat trouble—another an impediment in speech—another a cleft palate and two girls (not on list) are being educated in the school for blind in Indianapolis."

"The father is unable to support these children (six of them ranging in age from eight months to twelve years) on account of tuberculosis. He is now confined to bed in Modern Woodmen hospital in Denver."

And so it runs, story after story of the pitiable plight of scores of little folks of Rushville who are without hope.

STAR GAZING VERY SEASONABLE NOW

Three Evening Stars, Orion, Great
Dog And Little Dog Are Visible

Each Night

MAY BE SEEN BY 10 O'CLOCK

Three evening stars are now visible, Saturn in the east, Jupiter west of the meridian, and Venus, near the western horizon. The winter constellations are rising into view. Taurus with its pleiades and Hyades, presents to us the most brilliant and interesting part of the heavens. Orion is known to almost everyone. Whoever looks on this blazing constellation and learns its name, will never forget it. Before the time of Christ, a Roman poet wrote:

See great Orion rise.
His arms extended stretch o'er half the skies;

On each broad shoulder a bright star displayed,
And three obliquely grace his hanging blade.

Thus graced and armed he leads the starry host.

By 10 o'clock the constellations of the Great Dog and the Little Dog have risen. In the Great Dog is Sirius, generally known as the Dog Star. It is by far the brightest star in the heavens, and one of the nearest to earth. In the Little Dog is the first magnitude star Procyon, commonly called the Little Dog star. The dogs are often referred to as hounds of Orion, and in ancient drawings of constellations, leashes from the dogs were held in the hand of Orion.

OLD-TIME COLD CURE—
DRINK HOT TEA!

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking up a cold.

Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

RUB RHEUMATISM FROM
STIFF, ACHING JOINTS

Rub Soreness from joints and muscles with a small trial bottle of old St. Jacobs Oil

Stop "dosing" Rheumatism. It's pain only; not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil" right on the "tender spot," and by the time you say Jack Robinson—out comes the rheumatic pain. "St. Jacobs Oil" is a harmless rheumatism cure which never disappoints and doesn't burn the skin. It takes pain, soreness and stiffness from aching joints, muscles and bones; stops sciatica, lumbago, backache, neuralgia.

Limber up! Get a 25 cent bottle of old-time, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" from any drug store, and in a moment you'll be free from pains, aches and stiffness. Don't suffer! Rub rheumatism away.

FIELD OF CHURCH
TO BE ENLARGED

Would Make it Social, Commercial
And Agricultural Center as
Well as Religious.

PINCHOT GIVES ADDRESS

Ohio Selected as Place For Starting
Movement—Ministers Said to be Under Paid.

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Columbus, O., Dec. 8.—To make the rural church in America not only the religious, but the social, commercial and agricultural center for the farmer and his wife and children, is the object of a conference here today between Gifford Pinchot, agricultural educators, churchmen, farmers and others meeting with the Federal Council of Churches and the National Commission on Church and Rural Life. President Wilson is expected to address the convention Dec. 10, the last day, discussing his ideas of rural credits, one of the big questions with which congress is expected to deal this year.

Gifford Pinchot, who is chairman of the commission, in his address before the conference today, said in part:

"I believe we stand today on the threshold of a great movement which will bring back to the church in the country and smaller towns the greater power for good it used to have. I do not intend that the church should take the functions of the Grange or the agricultural school, but I believe the failure of the country churches, through their ministers, to get into productive touch with the work and needs of the country people is one of the fundamental reasons for present weakness of the country church. Good farms, good roads, good schools are necessary to the success of churches and active churches should assist powerfully in securing such material improvements.

"We are not here to advocate the weakening or strengthening of any one denomination at the expense of another or have we any theory to exploit or any ax to grind. We merely seek the truth about conditions, together with remedies that are both wise and practicable."

Ohio has been selected as a field for the first intensive rural church reform campaign. A survey by the Ohio country churches have been state shows that 800 of the 5000 abandoned, one third are growing, while two thirds have ceased to grow or are dying. Eighty three percent of them have a membership of less than 100 each. Only six per cent. have individual preachers, the others having from one half to one sixth of some minister's time.

The plan is to combine the strength of the country churches and establish at the logical points, community churches which, in addition to being houses of worship on Sunday, will be expected to be active in promoting good roads, scientific farming, public health and sanitation, temperance, public recreation, community beautification, better schools, library organization and other things of that sort.

It is the belief of the leaders of this movement that the average country minister is underpaid and often needs wider practical experience and training. Among those on the program today were:

MAKERS OF LAWS
TO HOLD MEETING

Legislative Draftsmen of Twenty
States to Meet in Connection With Political Science Association.

ARE PIONEERS IN THIS FIELD

Program Has Been Worked Out by
John A. Lapp, Director of the Indiana Bureau.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 8.—The first conference of legislative draftsmen held in this country will be held in Washington, in connection with the America Political science association, December 31, 1915. Representatives from about twenty states will be present to consider questions of legislative drafting. These men are pioneers in the effort to make laws say what they mean and mean what they say.

A number of states are giving serious attention to this subject and have regularly organized bureaus for the purpose of aiding legislatures in framing bills. The legislative reference departments and are doing much work along this line. The ideal sought for is to make the laws read so clear the people reading in good faith can understand them and people reading in bad faith cannot pretend to misunderstand.

The program for this meeting has been worked out by John A. Lapp of this city director of the Indiana Bureau of Legislative Information, who has been engaged by the state of Indiana for eight years in aiding the legislature with its problems.

Among these who are on the program are Dr. William Draper Lewis, of Pennsylvania; Charles McCarty of Wisconsin, Thomas L. Parkinson of Columbia university, James McKirdy of Pennsylvania, Finley F. Bell of Illinois, Miles C. Riley, secretary of the governors conference and Prof. Russel M. M. Storey of the University of Illinois.

WORKING TO SET
A NEW HIGH MARK

Agencies in Charge of Red Cross
Seal Campaign in Rush County
Have High Ambitions.

CARTHAGE SELLS 3,000 SEALS

The various agencies handling Red Cross Christmas Seals in the county are hard at work to set a new high mark for sales this season. The Psi Iota Xi sorority has charge of the sales in Rushville and beginning yesterday, will keep a committee in the postoffice lobby until Christmas to give every person mailing Christmas parcels opportunity to purchase Seals.

Carthage thus far has shown more zeal in the campaign than any other community. The agents there have disposed of three thousand Seals and have been sent a second allotment of three thousand more. Milroy, which had three thousand, has about sold out and word has been sent to Dr. W. S. Coleman, president of the anti-tuberculosis society of the county, that more will be needed there in a few days. As elsewhere in the county, the children of the Rushville public schools have been enlisted in the campaign and will sell Seals.

RETAIN THE WORD "HOTEL"

One Expert Estimates That There
Are 100,000 of These Words
Now in Use There.

BY CARL W. ACKERMAN.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Berlin, Oct., 23 (By Mail)—The crusaders against the use of foreign words and languages in Germany are temporarily blocked. Ernest Brues, a Duesseldorfer writer, has discovered that there are 100,000 foreign words in the German dictionary and it is calculated that it would take many years to get them out.

The wedding process, which began several months ago, is continued in some part of Germany every week. Last week a big meeting was held in the townhall of Duesseldorf. At the meeting were members of the General German Language club and the President of the International Hotel Keeper's club. All agreed that foreign words should not be used, especially on signs, but the Hotel Keepers won the point of having the word hotel, which is originally French, remain as a German word on the ground that 40 per cent of the visitors to hotels here are foreigners.

Finally the meeting adopted this resolution:

"This meeting, which is attended by representatives of Commerce and Trade for the District of Duesseldorf considers it its duty to point out that foreign words still appearing on signs, labels, nameplates, etc., should be replaced AS FAR AS POSSIBLE by good German words.

The phrase as far as possible was put in after Brues informed the meeting of the 100,000 enemies in the German language.

The greatest enemy
of your teeth

When scientists recently discovered the cause of that dread disease, pyorrhea, they discovered the greatest enemy of your teeth. Why yours? Because the germ that causes this disease inhabits every human mouth!

Your dentist will tell you that half of all the permanent teeth lost are lost from this disease. This is because people have not realized before that everyone should take precautions against this enemy. You can start now to ward off its constant attack and escape the terrible results of this disease by using the proper corrective and preventive treatment in your daily toilet.

To meet the need for this treatment and to enable everyone to take precautions against this disease, a prominent dentist has put his own prescription before the public in the convenient form of Senreco Tooth Paste.

Senreco contains the best corrective and preventive for pyorrhea known to dental science. Used daily it will successfully protect your teeth from this disease. Senreco also contains the best harmless agent for keeping the teeth clean and white. It has a refreshing flavor and leaves a wholesomely clean, cool and pleasant taste in the mouth.

Start the Senreco treatment tonight—full details in the folder wrapped around every tube. Symptoms described. A 25c two oz. tube is sufficient for six or eight weeks of the pyorrhea treatment. Get Senreco at your druggists today, or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Sental Remedies Co., 502 Union Central Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio.

ENGLAND WOULD WITHDRAW FORCE

If She Takes Men From Balkan Campaign, it Well be Against Wish of Her Allies.

SUGGESTED BY JOHN FRENCH

(By United Press.)
Paris, Dec. 8.—That England favors the withdrawal of the expeditionary forces from the Balkans was strongly hinted following the third session of the allies war council today.

A high official made this statement:

"If England persists alone in favor of leaving Salonika, then the remainder of the allies will continue to aid the Serbs."

Sir John French, British commander-in-chief, is understood to have brought the suggestion that the Balkan campaign be abandoned.

NOSE CLOGGED FROM A COLD OR CATARRH

Apply Cream in Nostrils To Open Up Air Passages.

Ah! What relief! Your clogged nostrils open right up, the air passages of your head are clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, snuffling, mucous discharge, headache, dryness—no struggling for breath at night, your cold or catarrh is gone.

Don't stay stuffed up! Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. ## Road To Health Is Through The Kidneys

No person alive is stronger than his kidneys. The minute the kidneys become disarranged or clogged with waste the warning is flashed throughout the entire system. The greater part of all sickness today can be avoided by keeping the kidneys working properly.

Johnson's Drug Store the popular druggist, can tell you of many well-known people in this city whom Solvax, the standard kidney remedy has restored to health, often after they have tried many other methods of treatment with little or no benefit.

This remarkable kidney remedy is guaranteed to help the worst case of lazy, sluggish, or clogged-up kidneys, or the general headachy, kink-backed, played-out condition that afflicts people suffering with kidney trouble. Solvax does not simply relieve. It aims to cure.

No other kidney remedy has made such a large percentage of cures as Solvax. It is so large that Johnson's Drug Store is perfectly safe in standing ready to refund the price to any customer whom it does not help.

WATSON BUYS FIRST TICKET

Rushville Man Starts Star's Concert Off Right by Paying $25 For Initial One.

SEAT SALE OPENS TODAY

Former Congressman Always Manages to be Present at Singing of Old Melodies.

On the front page of The Indianapolis Star this morning was an excellent picture of James E. Watson of this city buying the first ticket for the Old Melodies concert, which will be given in Indianapolis for the benefit of the Star's Santa Claus fund.

The seat sale did not start until today, but Mr. Watson was asked to promise to take a ticket today. It happened he was just leaving town when the request was made and he paid $25 for the first ticket just to start the sale off right. The Star says of the incident:

"Will I buy a ticket for the Old Melodies Concert—well, watch me!" said James E. Watson as a pretty young woman met him at the Traction Terminal Station yesterday afternoon. "But I'm going out of town on the very next car, so I can't buy it from you after your sale opens tomorrow. Tell you what I'll do—I'll give you $25 for the first ticket, just to start things off well for the success of that concert," and out came the roll of bills to make his word good.

Mr. Watson paused long enough to express his delight over previous concerts and to tell how he has come to every one of them from his home in Rushville.

"Why, sometimes I've been lots farther away from Indianapolis than my home about the time of the Old Melodies Concerts, but it always was concert for me on that night, even if I had to travel all day to get there."

Mr. Watson himself is a singer of some reputation, at least among the political folk, for when he was in Congress it was he who always led the singing at the close of the session in the House of Representatives. When Mr. Watson was in the House the minute it was time for the singing there was always a cry for him to lead. Naturally, those old melodies are very dear to his heart and he never loses a chance to be on hand to hear or to sing some of his old favorites.

But it isn't only away from Indiana that Mr. Watson's love for the old songs is so well known, for he is a member of a male quartet that is one of the institutions of Rushville and all that neighborhood.

Although the first ticket is already sold for this concert, which is to be given for the benefit of The Star Santa Claus Fund Monday evening, Dec. 20, at the Murat Theater, the second ticket and several hundred more will go on sale today at The Star office and also will be sold about town by a bevy of young girls. As usual there has been a demand for boxes and some of these have been engaged by persons who take their boxes annually for the affair, as well as by some of the new enthusiasts, but with twenty-four boxes to be filled naturally there are choice ones still to be obtained by calling at The Star office. These boxes will be $15 for six chairs. The single tickets will be 50 cents, good for any place in the house except the boxes. These tickets which will go on sale today and continue for a week can be exchanged for a reserved seat at the Murat Theater box office on and after Thursday, Dec. 16.

Pay Telephone Toll.

Don't overlook to pay your telephone toll before Dec. 12 if you wish to avoid paying the 15 cents extra for collection. No notice will be given by telephone.

is a new fabric invention, combining fine madras and silk fibre; producing a material which has the luster of silk and yet is as durable as serge. "Silkloth" is woven exclusively for Eagle

Shirts and thus far may be seen only at Mulno's hereabout.

The Shirts are made in plain negligee style, with soft French cuffs attached. The patterns are smart and distinctive stripes in blue, lavender and black on white grounds.

The fact that these Shirts will give a greater degree of service than all-silk Shirts, and that they retain their brilliant lustre, will undoubtedly make them popular.

We shall be glad to have you inspect them.

CONGRESS IS INDORSED
Committee Also Adopts Resolution Calling For Renomination and Election of Wilson.

Washington, Dec. 8.—The Democratic national convention of 1916 will be held at St. Louis, Mo., beginning Wednesday, June 14, at noon. The Democratic national committee last night named the convention city and adopted resolutions calling for the renomination and reelection of Woodrow Wilson as "the trusted leader of national Democracy."

Chicago and Dallas contested with St. Louis for the honor of the convention, but St. Louis easily led from the start and won on the second ballot. When the trend of the voting was seen Texas moved that the choice of St. Louis be made unanimous. Dallas held second place on the first ballot, but was displaced by Chicago on the second roll call.

The result of the first ballot was: St. Louis, 25; Dallas, 14; Chicago, 13. On the second ballot the vote was: St. Louis, 28; Chicago, 15, and Dallas, 9. The majority vote for St. Louis was gained on this ballot when John T. McGraw arose near the end of the call and changed West Virginia's vote from Chicago to the Missouri city. Then the choice was made unanimous.

It has been customary heretofore for national conventions to begin work on Tuesday. The fact that Tuesday fell on the thirteenth next year may or may not have had something to do with the determination of the Democratic committee to begin the proceedings a day later. The official explanation, however, was to the effect that the convention would not require more than three or four days to complete its work and it would not be too late in the week to start on Wednesday.

TIGERS WIN GAME.

The Rushville Tigers won from New Salem in a fast basketball game at the Graham Annex gymnasium Tuesday night by the score of 26 to 12. At the end of the first half the score stood six to five in favor of New Salem, but in the last half the local five ran away with the visitors.

ed to notify the L. E. & W. railway to install an electric light at the Third street crossing. The railway has been notified before and pays no attention to the order of the council. This is one of the few crossings in the city that has no light. It was intimated that action would be brought against the railway company in case the order was not heeded.

A. R. Herkless was granted an extension of time in completing the sidewalks in the Stewart and Tompkins addition. The time was extended to June 1, 1916. Cold weather hit the contractor before all of the walks were completed and the extension was necessary.

The council discussed the paving of First street, from Main street west to the Big Four railway. It has generally been understood that this street would be paved next year. Some of the people living on the street desire that the work be done under the three mile road law, but there is no chance for this next year as the township is bonded to the limit in road bonds. If the street is paved next year it will have to be done by the city.

The city will face grave complications when it goes to pave this street. It will be necessary to condemn the property on the north side of the street from Pearl street to the Big Four railway in order to establish the line for the sidewalk and this alone will mean a big task. The houses on this side of the street are now out where the side walk should be and if the street is ever put in the sidewalk will have to be constructed, which will mean that the houses will have to be moved several feet to the north.

THE QUOTED ITEM "SHOP EARLY"

Is only one of the many printed admonitions appearing daily in the papers all over the country—and the advice is good and worth following.

The old adage "better late than never" is a poor one to apply to Christmas shopping. Whoever follows it is sure to be sorry. The time to shop is now, now when the Christmas stocks are fresh and new, and when the store people have time to take care of your wants in the proper manner. Shop early and you will be more satisfied with the things you send them, for, if you buy in a hurry and at the last minute, you are sure to buy things that are not so appreciated as things you buy if you took plenty of time in selecting them. Don't be late and get caught in the mad rush and get your disposition spoiled. Begin buying now.

Every department in our store is filled with items suitable for Christmas giving. Articles to adorn the person and beautify the home, Gifts that give lasting pleasure. We want you to make our store your Christmas store.

Track Walker Finds Steel Rails Fastened to Track and Flags Flyer Near Tunnel.

OLD EMPLOYEES ARE BLAMED

(By United Press.)
Wheeling, W. Va., Dec. 8.—An attempt to wreck the Pennsylvania New York St. Louis flyer No. 32 near Unionport, Pa., by placing three tons of steel rails across the track near tunnel No. 7, was frustrated by Track Walker Dougherty today. The rails were securely fastened to the track by heavy chains. The track walker flagged the train, carrying 300 passengers and speeding 60 miles an hour, at the opposite end of the tunnel. The engine stopped 10 feet from the obstruction. Passengers made up a purse for the track walker. Company officials believe disgruntled employees were responsible.

The Pennsylvania flyer passes through Indiana, touching at Richmond, Indianapolis and Terre Haute.

MAY HELP PAY VISITING NURSE

City Council Considers Proposition to Appropriate $500 on Her Annual Salary.

SOME QUESTION OF LEGALITY

Member of City Health Board Offers to Resign if She is Appointed in His Place.

A proposition was submitted to the city council last night asking for aid in maintaining the visiting nurse. The council was asked to appropriate $500 towards the salary of the visiting nurse. Nothing definite resulted as the city attorney desired to investigate.

For some time there has been a growing demand for the city to help pay the expenses of the visiting nurse. Heretofore the nurse has been maintained by private funds and subscriptions. It was pointed out that since the visiting nurse is for the entire city, the council should help pay for this service out of the public funds. There is a question of whether the council has a right to appropriate money for this purpose.

One member of the city board of health offered to resign and then have the council appoint the visiting nurse as the third member of the board. In this way her salary could be fixed at $500 and paid by the city. Again the question of law arose as there was some doubt as to whether the city had a right to appoint a woman to a public office. The salary of the visiting nurse for next year will be $1,000 and it is believed that if the council will make arrangements to pay one-half of this amount the balance can be raised by subscription. The council is favorable to the visiting nurse idea and if possible some arrangements will likely be made.

The "clean-up, paint-up" idea hit the council last night and it was voted to put a new floor in the council chamber, paper and paint the room. The suggestion was made by Councilman Wagoner. He stated that the present condition of the room was a disgrace. He pointed out that the floor had been patched and that it was almost beyond repair. The council voted favorably on the suggestions and instructed Mayor Behout to award the contracts. Mayor Behout balked on selecting the wall paper and stated that when he got ready to buy he would call the council in and let the members help select the paper.

The city clerk was again instructed.

LAST DAY TO SAVE PENALTY

Somewhat of Rush to Pay Street Oiling Assessments.

Today was the final day for paying the oiling assessment without the added penalty of ten per cent. As a result there was somewhat of a rush towards the city treasurer's office. The oiling assessment this year was about one-half what it was last year owing to the fact that only one coat of oil was placed on the streets. An agreement was reached with the contractor for the one application. In case the assessments were not paid today they will be certified over to the county auditor and placed on the tax duplicate for collection next spring.

J. E. SPRAOLING'S MOTHER SUCCEUMBS

Mrs. H. J. Spradling, Age 75 Years, Formerly of This County, Dies at Kokomo Today

Mrs. H. J. Spradling, age seventy-five years, mother of J. E. Spradling of this city and former resident of this county, died at her home in Kokomo this morning at four o'clock, according to a message received today by Mr. Spradling. Mrs. Spradling has been in failing health for some time and last week she was once reported to be dying. Mr. Spradling went to her bedside then but she improved. Her death was due to heart trouble.

Mrs. Spradling was the daughter of William and Rachel Davis and was born and reared in Franklin county. Her maiden name was Frances Davis. Mr. and Mrs. Spradling have lived in Kokomo 25 or 26 years. They moved there from Milroy, where Mr. Spradling was engaged in farming. He first went into the hotel business and later opened a meat market. Mrs. Spradling was a member of the M. E. church from girlhood. The funeral will be held Friday at Kokomo.

The teachers and officers of the Methodist Sunday school will meet tonight at seven-thirty o'clock at the home of Miss Belle Gregg in North Jackson street. A full attendance is desired as important business is to be considered.

Mrs. Maude Cowan who was operated on at the Sexton sanatorium two weeks ago, was removed yesterday to the home of Mrs. Sarah Cowan where she is recovering nicely.

OPPOSITION TO GRAY REVEALED

Political Gossip is That John M. Lontz of Richmond is Being Groomed to Seek Nomination.

FOR SIXTH DISTRICT SEAT

Sort of Understand Last Campaign That Present Congressman Would be Given One More Chance.

There is a growing belief in political circles, especially in Rush county, that Finly Gray will find the sailing rather hard in the next campaign, and that he may even be sidetracked at the primary is not at all improbable.

In some quarters it is believed that Finly Gray has outlived his usefulness as a congressman and that the rank and file of the Democratic party in this district may unite in voting against him in the primary to be held in March. Congressman Gray has had the district practically in his power when it came to securing the nomination through the old convention route, but with a primary the race promises to become a free-for-all.

While there has been talk of opposition to Gray no one has had the nerve to oppose him in the Democratic convention, the last two times he was nominated. All of this is subject to change with the primary. One well known Democrat stated today that it would not surprise him if Gray had one or possibly two opponents for the nomination.

The man mentioned here as being the most likely candidate to oppose Congressman Gray is John M. Lontz of Richmond. Mr. Lontz has made no formal declaration of his intentions, but is known to be considering the matter and is even being urged by his friends to enter the race. It is also known that some of Lontz's friends have been touring the district getting a line on the sentiment and the reports these friends receive are said to be highly favorable to Lontz and decidedly unfavorable to Finly Gray.

Mr. Lontz is a successful manufacturer of Richmond, having been engaged in the manufacture of lawn mowers for several years. He is known to many Democrats here. One local Democrat described Lontz as being of the Adair type.

Gray has not made an announcement that he either would or would not be a candidate, but it has been taken for granted that he would again seek the nomination. With opposition staring him in the face it is not known what he will do. It was the general opinion that the last time Gray was nominated that he would be given one more chance and as this chance has been given many believed Gray should step down and out.

But this quitting idea is not characteristic of the Gray family—Finly and George. It took a severe drubbing in the last election to convince George Gray that he was not wanted on the bench in the Fayette-Union and Franklin circuit and the same may hold true with his brother Finly.

If Gray continues in the fight and Lontz comes out against him one of the hardest fights witnessed in this district will no doubt result. If the feeling over the district is the same as it is in Rush county then a large majority of the Democrats are "soured" on Gray and Lontz should have easy sailing in the primary.

Class No. 4 of the New Salem M. E. church will hold a chicken and cake exchange next Saturday morning beginning at nine o'clock, at the Plough Hat shop.

RETURNS TWO INDICTMENTS

Grand Jury Adjourns For Last Time And Makes Report on Its Various Investigations

CONDEMNS COUNTY FARM

Recommended Old Buildings be Razed And New And Modern Ones be Constructed

The grand jury made its final report to Judge Sparks late yesterday afternoon and was finally discharged. The grand jury reported two additional indictments. The bench warrants were issued but no arrests were to be made today because Judge Sparks was in Greenfield and the parties could not be brought before him if arrested.

Judge Sparks thanked the grand jury for their services. The grand jury in its report to the court took occasion to condemn the buildings at the county farm, as has been the custom of grand juries in the past. This grand jury made it plain that the old building should be razed and a new one constructed. The report was ordered certified to the county commissioners by the court. The report in full is as follows:

"We, the undersigned members of the grand jury of the November term, 1915, of the Rush Circuit court do respectfully report:

"We have made a thorough examination of the court house and found it to be in good condition in reference to cleanliness, and we wish to express our thanks to Custodian Joseph Diekmann, for the manner in which he has discharged his duties as janitor.

"We found the jail, upon examination to be clean and sanitary throughout and well kept by the present sheriff.

"We made a trip to the poor farm and found the buildings old and out of date. These buildings are, in our opinion, a disgrace to the county of Rush as a home for helpless, aged blind, paralytic, indigent inhabitants thereof. In our opinion, it would be useless and a waste of money to expend any fund in repairing the present buildings, and we believe it would be economy in the end to build new modern buildings for the care of the unfortunates of Rush county.

"The buildings are kept clean and in as good condition as possible, considering what the superintendent has to deal with, but the present condition thereof, and especially that in reference to the women's department, is far from sanitary. This condition is caused by the poor construction of the said building and from the lack of the use of sanitary toilets within said building.

"We recommend that the board of commissioners raze the said buildings to the ground and construct a new and modern building to be used in housing the Rush county poor.

"We have carefully examined into all matters brought before us and have given them our most careful consideration and, at this time, we know of nothing further to report.

"Respectfully submitted. Owen Henley, Joel G. Carson, George Spillman, William Chance, J. A. Mull and George B. Moore.

On Board Peace Ship Oscar The Second, Via Wireless to Cape Race, Dec. 8.—All is not peaceful aboard Henry Ford's ship of peace today.

The Rev. Charles Aked of San Francisco and several others, who entertained some doubts as to the success of the peace plan have asked to be "shown." They insist on being allowed to examine the document Madam Rosika Schwimmer asserted she had in her possession, proving that certain belligerents on both sides are not opposed to peace negotiations and that all neutrals favor the peace conference. They also insist that she offer proof of her statement that unofficial representatives of the belligerents will attend the Ford peace conference. Madam Schwimmer has thus far refused to produce the documents on the ground they are confidential.

HENRY FORD FIRES PEACE SHOT TODAY

"GOING TO STOP WAR"—JONES

(By United Press.)

New York, Dec. 8.—Henry Ford fired another "peace shot" from the wireless batteries of the peace ship Oscar The Second today. He sent to the United Press and other news associations an 800 word article describing the meeting aboard the ship last night in which Ellis Jones attacked President Wilson's preparedness program.

"This is a reactionary message," said Jones. "It comes to us when we must speak out. We are going now to stop a terrible war among nations, everyone of which was prepared in a military way for war. This is no time to disturb American traditions and prepare the United States for war."

The official board of St. Paul's M. E. church will give a social to the members and friends of the congregation on next Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. A short program will be given after which the membership will enjoy a general social time.

SUIT OVER ROAD IS COMPROMISED

Henry S. Conaway Given Practically All That he Demanded in Agreement Between Parties.

WILK & COMPANY DEFENDANTS

Plaintiff Objected to Carrying Out of Terms Regarding Forbes Road in Ripley.

The injunction suit of Henry S. Conaway against Wilk and Company, which started this morning before Judge Raymond Springer in circuit court was compromised this afternoon and the action dismissed by the plaintiff.

The case was the outgrowth of the building of the James Forbes road in Ripley township, over which there has been much litigation.

Under the terms of the compromise the road will be completed without any change whatever affecting the Conoway land. Under the terms of the agreement it was considered a victory for Conaway. The costs in the action were divided between the parties.

The injunction was sought against Wilk and Company to prevent this company from finishing the road as per an agreement reached in a previous law suit. When the road was finished Forbes filed suit against accepting it, claiming that the road was not built according to the plans and specifications. Chauncey Duncan represented the plaintiff and Kiplinger and Smith and A. L. Gary the defendants.

This suit was compromised in the Shelby circuit court where it was sent on a change of venue. Under the terms of the compromise Wilk & Company were to make certain alterations. In making these changes Conaway claimed that his property would be damaged as he has already raised his barn and leveled his yard to conform with the grade of the road. He asked that Wilks and Company be enjoined from carrying out the compromise agreement. The plaintiff alleged that an agreement of this kind was illegal. Most of the morning session was taken up with the introduction of records from the commissioners' court dealing with the Forbes road.

Judge Sparks has appointed Gary F. Jackson and Joseph L. Cowing jury commissioners for the ensuing year. Mr. Jackson was reappointed and Mr. Cowing succeeds Ralph Payne. The two new commissioners were at work today refilling the jury box. The names of property owners were secured from the tax duplicates.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to Thomas E. Logan and Clara B. Kirkpatrick.

It goes into the homes. It gives ideas, settles the question of what to get and where to get it.

LISTEN FOR A MOMENT TO THE STORIES OF LITTLE FOLKS WITHOUT ANY HOPE

Scores of Them Are Expecting Good Fellows to Steer Santa Claus to Their Chimney

PLAINTIFF TALES RECITED

If all the Good Fellows in Rushville could have a brief view of conditions investigators for the Goodfellows League have found, they would tumble over one another to get into charter membership of the League.

Many stories of want and privation, stories of homes with no prospect but that of a barren Christmas, stories of innocent little children who are depending upon the Good Fellows in Rushville to give Santa Claus a friendly tip about their age and address.

One charitable woman went into the home of a widow with a large family to get facts for the Goodfellows League. She found squalor and want. She saw a half grown girl and injured her name and age. "She's just fourteen," said the tired mother, "but she's married and we couldn't hardly expect the people to help her."

The visitor in the home was so astonished that she forgot to ask the names of the other children.

If any of you folks believe the Good Fellows haven't laudable work before them, just listen for a moment.

XMAS SUPERSTITIONS

If you will go to the crossroads between 11 and 12 on Christmas night you will hear what most concerns
you in the coming year.

If on Christmas eve you make a little heap of salt on the table, and it melts overnight you will die the next year. If in the morning it remains undiminished you will live.

If a shirt be spun, woven and sewed by a pure, chaste maiden on Christmas day it will be proof against lead or steel.

If you are born at sermon time on Christmas morning you can see spirits.

If you burn elder on Christmas eve you will have revealed to you all the witches and sorcerers of the neighborhood.

It is unlucky to carry anything forth from the house on Christmas morning until something has been brought into it.

COMMUNIPAW IS REPORTED SUNK

Dispatches Reaching London Say
Standard Oil Vessel Was Tor-
pedoed by Submarine.

(By United Press.)
London, Dec. 8.—Sharp contradiction in reports concerning the
fate of the American vessel Commu-
nipaw made it uncertain this afternoon whether the oil tanker was actually attacked by a submarine.

Though admittedly possible, it was
not considered probable here that
the Communipaw has departed from Alexandria almost immediately and then to have been attacked. It was held to be most probable that she
was chased by a submarine while enroute or else another vessel whose
identity which has not been established was sunk.

That the American steamer
Communipaw was submerged
"with all hands" off Tabruk was earlier news received here. This message was interpreted to mean that
the crew and the steamer were lost.
Dispatches from Genoa where the
Communipaw set sail said that she
had a crew of 39 men and five
American officers. She was commanded by Captain Nordstrom and
was bound for Alexandria.

The nationality of the attacking
submarine is unknown.

STEAMER ARRIVED AT ALEXANDRIA

Standard Oil Hears Communipaw
Reached Port But May Have Been Sunk Later.

ARRIVED THERE ON SUNDAY

(By United Press.)
New York, Dec. 8.—The Standard
Oil steamer Communipaw, reported
in Rome dispatches to have been sunk by a submarine, arrived at Alexandria on Sunday, according to a
cablegram received at the Standard
Oil offices here.

The cable was signed by the Standard Oil agent at Alexandria. It stated merely that the steamer had arrived. Officials of the line admitted the vessel may have left port the
following day and may have been
attacked and sunk.

NOTIFIED OF SINKING

(By United Press.)
Washington, Dec. 8.—The state
department today received a cable-

Rome saying a vessel believed to be the Communipaw had been torpedoed
and sunk.

SOME SEASONABLE DON'TS FOR FOLKS

Before the real holiday rush begins
at the post office, special instructions
are being received daily from the department at Washington to make
easier the task of the postal clerks
during the Christmas season.

The following list of "don'ts" has
been issued from the post office:

- Don't wait until the day before
Christmas or Christmas day.
- Don't fail to wrap parcel securely.
- Don't use paper that tears easily.
- Don't use poor twine.
- Don't attempt to mail umbrellas,
canes, etc., unless a stick is tied
along the side to prevent breakage.
- Don't forget that hat boxes must
be crated.
- Don't write with pencil.
- Don't forget the return address.
- Don't write return address where
the address should be located.
- Don't use tags if it can be avoided.

Don't enclose any writing in parcel
except card with name or "Merry
Christmas."

Don't mix candy, cake, oranges and
apples in the same parcel.

Don't forget that parcels without
the correct address are usually delayed.

Don't forget that china or glass
should be packed in excelsior and in
a wooden box.

Don't go away from home unless
you leave instructions to the carrier
regarding the delivery mail.

Don't mail finiselled post cards unless enclosed in an envelope with a
two-cent stamp on the outside.

Don't address parcels to children
unless the street number is given.

Don't expect post office clerks to
wrap your parcels for you.

Don't present your parcels until
they are ready for mailing.

Don't forget to have your money
ready so that persons following you
may not be delayed.

Don't seal packages unless you
want to pay letter postage.

The Christmas meeting of the Women's Home Missionary society of St. Paul's M. E. church will be held at the home of Mrs. Ferd Retherford in North Main street Thursday afternoon at two o'clock. Members are asked to take their thimbles.

Prof. Jenkins of Indiana University delivered another interesting address last night to the members of the Shakespeare club. The meeting was held in the assembly room of the court house. Prof. Jenkins spoke on "Isben, the Individualist." The next meeting will be held the first Tuesday in January.

About thirty members of Dr. C. H. Gilbert's Sunday school class of the Main Street Christian Sunday school surprised Mrs. Don Cassidy at her home at 722 North Jackson street last evening. Mrs. Cassidy is a member of the class. Mr. and Mrs. Cassidy and daughter will leave soon for Newcastle for permanent residence.

Amusements

From all reports of the attendance from other cities, the six reel spectacle Damon and Pythias, which comes to the Princess Friday matinee and night, will draw record crowds for the local theatre. The management has suggested that as many as possible attend the matinee so that none will be disappointed at the night performance. This half million dollar photo-play of Friendship should be seen by everyone that believes in the uplift of mankind.

The Princess will show for tonight a big double program. Lillian Lorraine and William Courtleigh will be seen in "Neal of the Navy." In this episode Annette attends a dance aboard the U. S. S. Alabama where the disguised Hernandez again attempts to secure the Yellow Packet and Annette is thrown into the sea. Edith Storey and Hughie Mack are also featured in a great comedy, in two acts, "A Queen For An Hour." Tomorrow Edna Mayo and Bryant Washburn will be seen in "The House Divided." On Friday night the big stupendous spectacular production, "Damon and Pythias" will be shown.

The six-act photoplay version of Lottie Blair Parker's famous novel and drama, "Under Southern Skies," which comes to the Gem theater tomorrow with Mary Fuller, the Universal star, in the leading role, promises to enjoy as long a life as the original play and novel.

Many of the actors who have been connected with "Under Southern Skies" on the speaking stage have since become famous in the pictures, among them Henry Walthall, who plays the leading role in "The Birth of a Nation." Mr. Walthall played "Steve" for two years in the play on the speaking stage. This part is played by Paul Panzer in the Universal's version.

Ralph Stuart was the original "Burleigh" and is now a picture star. Mabel Trunnelle played "Lelia" with an Eastern "Under Southern Skies" company for two years and is now an Edison star. George Seigman, another star in "The Birth of a Nation," played "Colonel Daubeney" with an "Under Southern Skies" company for three years.

"The Fly-by-Nights"

"The Fly-by-nights" is the subject of a very interesting and inspiring editorial published by the Portland, Oregon, Journal, a prominent Democratic organ in the Pacific Northwest. This expression is used to describe a class of salesmen who appear at a local hotel and take orders for shoes or other commodities, and leave in a few days for other communities. The complaint of the Journal is that these salesmen pay

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Well-known local druggist says everybody is using old-time recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe. Nowadays we get this famous mixture by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. Besides, it takes off dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

no taxes, buy no groceries, use no hardware, patronize no doctors or druggists and employ no labor. The Journal says: "The home dealer is a part of Portland. He helps maintain Portland; he helps provide jobs for Portland workers, he helps support Portland workers, he helps support Portland schools; he helps pay Portland firemen and Portland police; he spends his earnings in Portland and among Portlanders and by his helpfulness to the community he deserves the patronage of the people of the community."

The marvelous feature of this editorial by the Journal is its entire disregard of the application of its utterances to the problem of foreign importations. The "fly-by-night" at least pays a hotel bill, and advertises in the local papers. At the same time that the Journal is making a plea for the purchase of articles from Portland dealers, it is advocating a tariff policy which encourages American people to buy from European and Asiatic producers.

The European manufacturer pays very slight taxes under a Democratic policy, he does not help build up American enterprise, and all his interests are adverse rather than favorable to ours. Every dollar we pay him he uses to develop his industries so that he can take more dollars away from us.

In its local affairs the Journal recognizes the fact that the home dealer is "your neighbor, your townsman, your co-workers and he ought to have your patronage," but in national policies, the theory of the Journal and all other Democratic papers seems to be that the producer of Europe and Asia is "your neighbor, your co-worker who ought to have your patronage."

It is hoped that those readers of the Journal who accept its policy regarding the patronage of "fly-by-nights" in Portland will extend their patriotism and loyalty to home interests by advocating a national policy which encourages or compels the American people to patronize the producers of their own country.

Too Much Middle Men

The curse of the American farmer is the rapidly increasing, expanding and perpetuating middleman.

No matter what the farmers raises or produces, or what price the ultimate consumer pays, the middleman and his cohorts and satellites get the bulk of it.

When apples were rotting on the ground in many sections of the country last summer because the growers could not get a price sufficient to pay for marketing them the people of the cities were paying a nickel for three little runts. If fair sized they were two for a nickel, and in many cases five cents each.

Why can't the farmers of this county band together in some kind of an organization and do their own marketing without the assistance of these grasping and devouring middlemen? Surely some method could be devised whereby their crops could be marketed jointly and in bulk and thus save the tremendous shrinkage that now goes into the pockets of a horde of useless go-betweens.

Orange growers in Florida have such an organization and are getting better prices for their fruit and with less trouble.

In Chicago there are a number of men who have purchased fruit and truck land in Alabama. They have formed an organization for mutual advantage and protection and one man disposes of all of their products direct to the retailers, realizing good prices on every commodity.

There are enough farmers in this county to form a large and powerful organization. Agents could be appointed in the large cities and shipments could be made direct. The services of numerous middlemen would be dispensed with and the increased profits would go into the pockets of the farmers.

The coming year promises to be one of great prosperity to the American people.

Representative N. E. Matthews, of Ohio, represents one of those numerous Congressional districts in which the sugar beet industry has made considerable progress. When the Democratic tariff law was passed, many of the farmers discontinued the raising of sugar beets and some of the factories closed down. The beginning of the European war revived the industry. As an indication of the importance of this industry to any community, Mr. Matthews gives figures showing that one small factory at Paulding, Ohio, paid out $302,350 for a portion of the crop of beets harvested in October of this year. Had the Democrats accomplished what they expected, to wit, regard to domestic production of sugar, this and other factories of a similar nature probably would not have been in operation at all this year.

The big Republican love feast is to be held in Indianapolis on Dec. 30 instead of on Dec. 29 as announced. The Republican State Committee made this change in the date when it was learned that the Marat Theatre—generally considered the best place in Indianapolis to hold such a meeting could only be obtained for Dec. 30.

"It seems now that this love feast is going to be the biggest demonstration the party has ever held on a similar occasion," said State Chairman Will H. Hays, after the State Committee meeting.

The next Republican State Convention, the only Republican party convention that will be held in Indiana next year, will be held on Wednesday and Thursday, April 5 and 6. The state convention delegates will meet by districts on Wednesday night, April 5 for the purpose of selecting members of the various convention committees and delegates to the Republican national convention.

If Andy Carnegie is pining to get rid of that remaining $60,000,000 in order to die poor all he has to do is to trot right along to this little burg. We'll receive him with open pockets and narry a chirp about tainted money.

If You Have Catarrh Read This

Breathe Hyomei Four Times a Day
And Watch Results. Gives
Prompt Relief

The pleasantest, most convenient and most scientific method for the treatment of catarrh is Hyomei. Simply put a few drops of Hyomei in the inhaler that comes with every package and then breathe its air for a few minutes, four times a day. It seems remarkable that so simple a way of treating catarrh will effect such quick relief, but the most important discoveries of science have always been the simplest. By breathing Hyomei in this way every particle of air that enters the air passages of the throat and head that goes into the lungs is charged with a healing balsam that kills the germs and bacilli of catarrh and soothes and allays irritation.

The first day's use of Hyomei will show an improvement and in a short time there should be no further trouble from catarrh. Its action is rapid and lasting.

You take no risk in buying Hyomei. A complete outfit is inexpensive but if after using you can say that it has not helped you Johnson's Drug Store will return your money. What other treatment for catarrh is sold under a guarantee like this? (Advertisement.)

COLUMBIA HAD GOOD SEASON

After Ten Year Lay off University
Found Football Much to Its
Liking

WON EVERY GAME PLAYED

Getting Ready to go After Bigger
Game Next Year—Three Men
Lost by Graduation

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

New York, Dec. 8.—After ten years, without football, without a single defeat, Columbia's Blue and White ploughed through the colleges it met upon the 1915 gridiron. An from the realm of footballers this long time, but my! my! what a comeback!

Columbia, fairly hopping around on her toes in glee over this year's doings, is expecting great things of the Blue and White eleven next year. The only thing that now appears which might militate against realization of that expectation is the fact that Columbia is doomed to lose three strong men from this year's lineup: Captain Francis M. Simonds, left half back; Eeky Calder and Herb Buermyer, left and right end, respectively.

Columbia is getting ready to go after bigger game next year. Columbia wouldn't be at all averse to including Yale in her 1916 schedule. Columbia, in fact, is quite considerably chesky over this year's football and not, it might be added, altogether without justification.

The Blue and Whiteners led off walloping St. Lawrence 57 to 0, slugged Stevens 15 to 6, sloughed the Connecticut Aggies 17 to 6 and lambasted N. Y. U. 19 to 16, to say nothing of topping off by showing Wesleyan off the field with a score of 18 to 0.

Maybe this ten year layoff business is great stuff, after all. Maybe the Miracle Man will try one of 'em. Maybe there's a tinge of this so-called psychological stuff in a ten year lay off at that. After Booth Tarkington wrote the Gentleman From Indiana, The Man From Home, The Two VenRevels and other books quite some ten years or so ago, he announced that he'd have to lie fallow for ten years before he could write again, because he was written out. Tarkington's 1914-1915 season has been a royal comebacker too. May be something to it. Columbia ought to know—she has one of those psycho. departments; and maybe there was method in the professors' madness in banning football after all.

*****

Many complaints are often heard following any big undertaking by the city as a whole from business men who always bear the burden of the expense. Of course, only a small majority of them are complainers—but it is the rule that it is the complainers who are usually heard.

Following the last fall festival and horse show, members of a Rushville firm ridiculed the effort and declared that Rushville would never see another one. They declared that it was useless from a business standpoint and that the people didn't enjoy such things anyway. Besides, they pointed out, no horses were ever shown in front of their place and it did not do THEM any good.

It has since developed that this same firm sold a bill of goods amounting to $550.00 (think of it—count them on your fingers—550 large simoleons) to a woman from a neighboring county seat city.

"Well how did it happen she spent that much money here?" a member of the firm was asked.

"The woman came here for the horse show and saw something she liked," he replied "and before she got through she spent $550."

But it was too good to call attention to the moral. Here was a complainer convinced by actual facts.

The principal manufacturers of the state are expected to be present at this banquet.

AMALGAMATION IS LIKELY TO RESULT

Independent Telephone Companies
Consider Uniting at Three
Day Conference.

IS CONSIDERED FIRST STEP

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Dec. 8.—The first step towards amalgamation of two of the biggest independent telephone associations in this country was taken today when members of the Independent Telephone Association met in a joint three day convention here. William F. Fortune, president of the Indianapolis Telephone Co., is authority for the statement that the joint convention is the forerunner of the joining of the two associations.

It has been no secret that the independents have been planning joining forces. According to P. G. Holdegel, secretary and manager of the Central Mutual Telephone Company, Rockwell City, Iowa, a member of the National Telephone Company, the matter has been under discussion for some time.

The Janesville, Wis., situation was discussed today by W. S. Vivian, Chicago. At Janesville, Vivian asserted, subscribers of either the independent or the Bell company, may talk with subscribers of the other company, local or long distance. Neither company had lost a subscriber by the arrangement, he said.

Utility regulation was discussed by Judge Proouty of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

LISTEN TO STORIES OF CHILDREN WITHOUT HOPE

ment, to a few notes from the pages of names taken by one woman who volunteered to help the League in its work:

"Father hauls logs, earning just a bare living—mother washes."

"This woman is a widow and supports her seven children."

"The mother is a widow and washes to support her three children."

"This family has had scarlet fever since the first of September." There are six children in the family, ranging in age from two to fourteen years.

"Father has no steady work." Here is the tragedy, expressed in five words, of a family of four children with only the forlorn hope that the Good Fellows will steer Santa Claus to their chimney.

"This father works every day at the —making $14.00 per week. His wife is blind; one child has throat trouble—another an impediment in speech—another a cleft palate and two girls (not on list) are being educated in the school for blind in Indianapolis."

"The father is unable to support these children (six of them ranging in age from eight months to twelve years) on account of tuberculosis. He is now confined to bed in Modern Woodmen hospital in Denver."

And so it runs, story after story of the pitiable plight of scores of little folks of Rushville who are without hope.

STAR GAZING VERY SEASONABLE NOW

Three Evening Stars, Orion, Great
Dog And Little Dog Are Visible
Each Night

MAY BE SEEN BY 10 O'CLOCK

Three evening stars are now visible, Saturn in the east, Jupiter west of the meridian, and Venus, near the western horizon. The winter constellations are rising into view. Taurus with its pleiades and Hyades, presents to us the most brilliant and interesting part of the heavens. Orion is known to almost everyone. Whoever looks on this blazing constellation and learns its name, will never forget it. Before the time of Christ, a Roman poet wrote: See great Orion rise.

His arms extended stretch o'er half the skies;

On each broad shoulder a bright star displayed,
And three obliquely grace his hanging blade.

Thus graced and armed he leads the starry host.

By 10 o'clock the constellations of the Great Dog and the Little Dog have risen. In the Great Dog is Sirius, generally known as the Dog Star. It is by far the brightest star in the heavens, and one of the nearest to earth. In the Little Dog is the first magnitude star Procyon, commonly called the Little Dog star. The dogs are often referred to as hounds of Orion, and in ancient drawings of constellations, leashes from the dogs were held in the hand of Orion.

OLD-TIME COLD CURE—
DRINK HOT TEA!

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teaspoon full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking up a cold. Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

RUB RHEUMATISM FROM

Stop "dosing" Rheumatism. It's pain only; not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil" right on the "tender spot," and by the time you say Jack Robinson—out comes the rheumatic pain. "St. Jacobs Oil" is a harmless rheumatism cure which never disappoints and doesn't burn the skin. It takes pain, soreness and stiffness from aching joints, muscles and bones; stops sciatica, lumbago, backache, neuralgia. Limber up! Get a 25 cent bottle of old-time, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" from any drug store, and in a moment you'll be free from pains, aches and stiffness. Don't suffer! Rub rheumatism away.

TO BE ENLARGED

Would Make it Social, Commercial
And Agricultural Center as
Well as Religious.

PINCHOT GIVES ADDRESS

Ohio Selected as Place For Starting
Movement—Ministers Said to
be Under Paid.

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)
Columbus, O., Dec. 8.—To make the rural church in America not only the religious, but the social, commercial and agricultural center for the farmer and his wife and children, is the object of a conference here today between Gifford Pinchot, agricultural educators, churchmen, farmers and others meeting with the Federal Council of Churches and the National Commission on Church and Rural Life. President Wilson is expected to address the convention Dec. 10, the last day, discussing his ideas of rural credits, one of the big questions with which congress is expected to deal this year.

Gifford Pinchot, who is chairman of the commission, in his address before the conference today, said in part:

"I believe we stand today on the threshold of a great movement which will bring back to the church in the country and smaller towns the greater power for good it used to have. I do not intend that the church should take the functions of the Grange or the agricultural school, but I believe the failure of the country churches, through their ministers, to get into productive touch with the work and needs of the country people is one of the fundamental reasons for present weakness of the country church. Good farms, good roads, good schools are necessary to the success of churches and active churches should assist powerfully in securing such material improvements.

"We are not here to advocate the weakening or strengthening of any one denomination at the expense of another or have we any theory to exploit or any ax to grind. We merely seek the truth about conditions, together with remedies that are both wise and practicable."

Ohio has been selected as a field for the first intensive rural church reform campaign. A survey by the Ohio country churches have been state shows that 800 of the 5000 abandoned, one third are growing, while two thirds have ceased to grow or are dying. Eighty three percent of them have a membership of less than 100 each. Only six per cent. have individual preachers, the others having from one half to one sixth of some minister's time.

The plan is to combine the strength of the country churches and establish at the logical points, community churches which, in addition to being houses of worship on Sunday, will be expected to be active in promoting good roads, scientific farming, public health and sanitation, temperance, public recreation, community beautification, better schools, library organization and other things of that sort.

It is the belief of the leaders of this movement that the average country minister is underpaid and often needs wider practical experience and training. Among those on the program today were:

MAKERS OF LAWS GETTING RID OF
TO HOLD MEETING FOREIGN WORDS

Legislative Draftsmen of Twenty
States to Meet in Connection With Political Science Association.

ARE PIONEERS IN THIS FIELD

Program Has Been Worked Out by
John A. Lapp, Director of the Indiana Bureau.

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 8.—The first conference of legislative draftsmen held in this country will be held in Washington, in connection with the America Political science association, December 31, 1915. Representatives from about twenty states will be present to consider questions of legislative drafting. These men are pioneers in the effort to make laws say what they mean and mean what they say.

A number of states are giving serious attention to this subject and have regularly organized bureaus for the purpose of aiding legislators in framing bills. The legislative reference departments and are doing much work along this line. The ideal sought for is to make the laws read so clear the people reading in good faith can understand them and people reading in bad faith cannot pretend to misunderstand.

The program for this meeting has been worked out by John A. Lapp of this city director of the Indiana Bureau of Legislative Information, who has been engaged by the state of Indiana for eight years in aiding the legislature with its problems.

Among these who are on the program are Dr. William Draper Lewis, of Pennsylvania; Charles McCarty of Wisconsin, Thomas L. Parkinson of Columbia university, James McKirdy of Pennsylvania, Finley F. Bell of Illinois, Miles C. Riley, secretary of the governors conference and Prof. Russel M. M. Storey of the University of Illinois.

WORKING TO SET
A NEW HIGH MARK

Agencies in Charge of Red Cross
Seal Campaign in Rush County
Have High Ambitions.

CARTHAGE SELLS 3,000 SEALS

The various agencies handling Red Cross Christmas Seals in the county are hard at work to set a new high mark for sales this season. The Psi Iota Xi sorority has charge of the sales in Rushville and beginning yesterday, will keep a committee in the postoffice lobby until Christmas to give every person mailing Christmas parcels opportunity to purchase Seals.

Carthage thus far has shown more zeal in the campaign than any other community. The agents there have disposed of three thousand Seals and have been sent a second allotment of three thousand more. Milroy, which had three thousand, has about sold out and word has been sent to Dr. W. S. Coleman, president of the anti-tuberculosis society of the county, that more will be needed there in a few days. As elsewhere in the county, the children of the Rushville public schools have been enlisted in the campaign and will sell Seals.

The greatest enemy
of your teeth

When scientists recently discovered the cause of that dread disease, pyorrhea, they discovered the greatest enemy of your teeth. Why yours? Because the germ that causes this disease inhabits every human mouth!

Your dentist will tell you that half of all the permanent teeth lost are lost from this disease. This is because people have not realized before that everyone should take precautions against this enemy. You can start now to ward off its constant attack and escape the terrible results of this disease by using the proper corrective and preventive treatment in your daily toilet.

To meet the need for this treatment and to enable everyone to take precautions against this disease, a prominent dentist has put his own prescription before the public in the convenient form of Senreco Tooth Paste.

Senreco contains the best corrective and preventive for pyorrhea known to dental science. Used daily it will successfully protect your teeth from this disease. Senreco also contains the best harmless agent for keeping the teeth clean and white. It has a refreshing flavor and leaves a wholesomely clean, cool and pleasant taste in the mouth.

Start the Senreco treatment tonight—full details in the folder wrapped around every tube. Symptoms described. A 25c two oz. tube is sufficient for six or eight weeks of the pyorrhea treatment. Get Senreco at your druggists today, or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Scantel Remedies Co., 502 Union Central Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio.

ENGLAND WOULD WITHDRAW FORCE

If She Takes Men From Balkan Campaign, it Well be Against Wish of Her Allies.

SUGGESTED BY JOHN FRENCH

(By United Press.)
Paris, Dec. 8.—That England favors the withdrawal of the expeditionary forces from the Balkans was strongly hinted following the third session of the allies war council today.

A high official made this statement:

"If England persists alone in favor of leaving Salonika, then the remainder of the allies will continue to aid the Serbs."

Sir John French, British commander-in-chief, is understood to have brought the suggestion that the Balkan campaign be abandoned.

NOSE CLOGGED FROM A COLD OR CATARRH
Apply Cream in Nostrils To Open Up Air Passages.

Ah! What relief! Your clogged nostrils open right up, the air passages of your head are clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, sniffling, mucous discharge, headache, dryness—no struggling for breath at night, your cold or catarrh is gone.
Don't stay stuffed up! Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream-Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Ely's Cream-Balm is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer has been seeking. It's just splendid!

Road To Health Is Through The Kidneys

No person alive is stronger than his kidneys. The minute the kidneys become disarranged or clogged with waste the warning is flashed throughout the entire system. The greater part of all sickness today can be avoided by keeping the kidneys working properly.

Johnson's Drug Store the popular druggist, can tell you of many well-known people in this city whom Solvax, the standard kidney remedy has restored to health, often after they have tried many other methods of treatment with little or no benefit.

This remarkable kidney remedy is guaranteed to help the worst case of lazy, sluggish, or clogged-up kidneys, or the general headachy, kidneybacked, played-out condition that afflicts people suffering with kidney trouble. Solvax does not simply relieve. It aims to cure.

No other kidney remedy has made such a large percentage of cures as Solvax. It is so large that Johnson's Drug Store is perfectly safe in standing ready to refund the price to any customer whom it does not help.

NOT TO OPPOSE PROGRAM

Senate Republicans, However, Lay Down One Condition

(By United Press.)
Washington, Dec. 8.—President Wilson today was informed that senate Republicans would not fight his preparedness program if it were kept out of caucus. Senator Gallinger, one of the two Republican leaders who the president had asked for a conference, talked with him for nearly an hour today.

WATSON BUYS FIRST TICKET

Rushville Man Starts Star's Concert Off Right by Paying $25 For Initial One.

Former Congressman Always Manages to be Present at Singing of Old Melodies.

On the front page of The Indianapolis Star this morning was an excellent picture of James E. Watson of this city buying the first ticket for the Old Melodies concert, which will be given in Indianapolis for the benefit of the Star's Santa Claus fund.

The seat sale did not start until today, but Mr. Watson was asked to promise to take a ticket today. It happened he was just leaving town when the request was made and he paid $25 for the first ticket just to start the sale off right. The Star says of the incident:

"Will I buy a ticket for the Old Melodies Concert—well, watch me!" said James E. Watson as a pretty young woman met him at the Traction Terminal Station yesterday afternoon. "But I'm going out of town on the very next car, so I can't buy it from you after your sale opens tomorrow. Tell you what I'll do—I'll give you $25 for the first ticket, just to start things off well for the success of that concert," and out came the roll of bills to make his word good.

Mr. Watson paused long enough to express his delight over previous concerts and to tell how he has come to every one of them from his home in Rushville.

"Why, sometimes I've been lots farther away from Indianapolis than my home about the time of the Old Melodies Concerts, but it always was concert for me on that night, even if I had to travel all day to get there."

Mr. Watson himself is a singer of some reputation, at least among the political folk, for when he was in Congress it was he who always led the singing at the close of the session in the House of Representatives. When Mr. Watson was in the House the minute it was time for the singing there was always a cry for him to lead. Naturally, those old melodies are very dear to his heart and he never loses a chance to be on hand to hear or to sing some of his old favorites.

But it isn't only away from Indiana that Mr. Watson's love for the old songs is so well known, for he is a member of a male quartet that is one of the institutions of Rushville and all that neighborhood.

Although the first ticket is already sold for this concert, which is to be given for the benefit of The Star Santa Claus Fund Monday evening, Dec. 20, at the Murat Theater, the second ticket and several hundred more will go on sale today at The Star office and also will be sold about town by a bevy of young girls.

As usual there has been a demand for boxes and some of these have been engaged by persons who take their boxes annually for the affair, as well as by some of the new enthusiasts, but with twenty-four boxes to be filled naturally there are choice ones still to be obtained by calling at The Star office. These boxes will be $15 for six chairs. The single tickets will be 50 cents, good for any place in the house except the boxes. These tickets which will go on sale today and continue for a week can be exchanged for a reserved seat at the Murat Theater box office on and after Thursday, Dec. 16.

Pay Telephone Toll.

Don't overlook to pay your telephone toll before Dec. 12 if you wish to avoid paying the 15 cents extra for collection. No notice will be given by telephone.

Announcing the First Showing of Eagle "Silkloth" Shirts For Men at $3

As a holiday feature we shall introduce these Shirts, which are here exclusively in this vicinity.

is a new fabric invention, combining fine madras and silk fibre; producing a material which has the luster of silk and yet is as durable as serge. "Silkloth" is woven exclusively for Eagle

Shirts and thus far may be seen only at Mulno's hereabout.

The Shirts are made in plain negligee style, with soft French cuffs attached. The patterns are smart and distinctive stripes in blue, lavender and black on white grounds.

The fact that these Shirts will give a greater degree of service than all-silk Shirts, and that they retain their brilliant lustre, will undoubtedly make them popular.

We shall be glad to have you inspect them.

ST. LOUIS WINS THE CONVENTION

On Second Ballot of Democratic National Committee Meeting, Majority Goes to Missouri.

CONGRESS IS INDORSED

Committee Also Adopts Resolution Calling For Renomination and Election of Wilson.

Washington, Dec. 8.—The Democratic national convention of 1916 will be held at St. Louis, Mo., beginning Wednesday, June 14, at noon. The Democratic national committee last night named the convention city and adopted resolutions calling for the renomination and re-election of Woodrow Wilson as "the trusted leader of national Democracy."

Chicago and Dallas contested with St. Louis for the honor of the convention, but St. Louis easily led from the start and won on the second ballot. When the trend of the voting was seen Texas moved that the choice of St. Louis be made unanimous. Dallas held second place on the first ballot, but was displaced by Chicago on the second roll call.

The result of the first ballot was: St. Louis, 25; Dallas, 14; Chicago, 13. On the second ballot the vote was: St. Louis, 28; Chicago, 15, and Dallas, 9. The majority vote for St. Louis was gained on this ballot when John T. McGraw arose near the end of the call and changed West Virginia's vote from Chicago to the Missouri city. Then the choice was made unanimous.

It has been customary heretofore for national conventions to begin work on Tuesday. The fact that Tuesday fell on the thirteenth next year may or may not have had something to do with the determination of the Democratic committee to begin the proceedings a day later. The official explanation, however, was to the effect that the convention would not require more than three or four days to complete its work and it would not be too late in the week to start on Wednesday.

TIGERS WIN GAME.

The Rushville Tigers won from New Salem in a fast basketball game at the Graham Annex gymnasium Tuesday night by the score of 26 to 12. At the end of the first half the score stood six to five in favor of New Salem, but in the last half the local five ran away with the visitors.

ed to notify the L. E. & W. railway to install an electric light at the Third street crossing. The railway has been notified before and pays no attention to the order of the council. This is one of the few crossings in the city that has no light. It was intimated that action would be brought against the railway company in case the order was not heeded.

A. R. Herkless was granted an extension of time in completing the sidewalks in the Stewart and Tompkins addition. The time was extended to June 1, 1916. Cold weather hit the contractor before all of the walks were completed and the extension was necessary.

The council discussed the paving of First street, from Main street west to the Big Four railway. It has generally been understood that this street would be paved next year. Some of the people living on the street desire that the work be done under the three mile road law, but there is no chance for this next year as the township is bonded to the limit in road bonds. If the street is paved next year it will have to be done by the city.

The city will face grave complications when it goes to pave this street. It will be necessary to condemn the property on the north side of the street from Pearl street to the Big Four railway in order to establish the line for the sidewalk and this alone will mean a big task. The houses on this side of the street are now out where the side walk should be and if the street is ever put in the sidewalk will have to be constructed, which will mean that the houses will have to be moved several feet to the north.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK TRAIN FRUSTRATED

Track Walker Finds Steel Rails Fastened to Track and Flags Flyer Near Tunnel.

OLD EMPLOYEES ARE BLAMED

(By United Press.)
Wheeling, W. Va., Dec. 8.—An attempt to wreck the Pennsylvania New York St. Louis flyer No. 32 near Unionport, Pa., by placing three tons of steel rails across the track near tunnel No. 7, was frustrated by Track Walker Dougherty today. The rails were securely fastened to the track by heavy chains. The track walker flagged the train, carrying 300 passengers and speeding 60 miles an hour, at the opposite end of the tunnel. The engine stopped 10 feet from the obstruction. Passengers made up a purse for the track walker. Company officials believe disgruntled employees were responsible.

The Pennsylvania flyer passes through Indiana, touching at Richmond, Indianapolis and Terre Haute.
